BasicsCard workers at Ampilatwatja tip

These workers are doing municipal work for the Shire council – but only being paid in the BasicsCard. In this photo, taken in February they are driving an unregistered truck without a license. BasicsCard workers are also in aged-care, childcare, construction and schools

Raw sewage at Ampilatwatja

With the government refusing to fund jobs for local people in communities, services are suffering badly.

3000L of raw sewage was dumped onto the ground at the local tip. This is only 800 metres from the local school. The three Aboriginal staff refused these orders and demanded support to dispose of it properly. Two contractos were brought in to dump it.

INVEST IN JOBS NOT MORE BASICSCARDS!

The NT Intervention promised “real jobs”. But conditions for Aboriginal people are getting worse. Thousands of jobs were lost as CDEP and community councils closed down. Some of these people now on Centrelink are being forced to work for the BasicsCard. This is working for rations again.

The government is going to spend another $350 million pushing Income Management across the NT. Join the rally to demand this money be invested in jobs and services for all - not punishing struggling people.
